 - Notice of Change in Particulars of Company Secretary and Director with protected information (PI-ND2B)

- (4) The authorisation letter attached in appendix of the application forms is a document required by the Hong Kong Police Force for the consent of the applicant/nominated operator/other related person(s) to the release to LD of all information of any criminal record against the applicant/nominated operator/other related person(s) within the preceding 5 years, concerning conviction of an offence against the person of a child, young person, or woman or of an offence involving membership of a triad society, fraud, dishonesty or extortion.
- (5) In accordance with regulation 2(1)(b)(iii) of the Employment Agency Regulations (“EAR”), applicant may be required to provide any other relevant information as the Commissioner for Labour (“the Commissioner”) thinks necessary.
- (6) EAA will process the application for a licence in accordance with section 53(1) of the Employment Ordinance (“EO”). The Commissioner may refuse to issue a licence upon the occurrence of the following situation:

	Licensee	Related Person(s)	Employed Individual(s)
is an undischarged bankrupt	✓
has, within the preceding 5 years, been convicted of an offence against the person of a child, young person or woman or of an offence involving membership of triad society, fraud, dishonesty or extortion	✓	✓
has knowingly furnished any false or misleading information in connection with the application for a licence	✓
has contravened any provision of Part XII of the EO or EAR	✓	✓	✓ has not complied with the Code of Practice for Employment Agencies	✓	✓	✓ is not, for any other reasons, a fit and proper person to operate an EA	✓

- (7) A licence fee of HK$2,000 and a duplicate licence fee of HK $385 each (if applicable) is payable after the application has been approved and payment should be made by methods specified on the demand note to the Treasury.
- (8) No refund of a licence fee shall be made by the Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region if the licence is revoked by the Commissioner.
- (9) Please refer to Annex for the Personal Information Collection Statement.

(II) Points-to-note for receipt of electronic licences by email

- (10) An applicant may choose to receive the licence in paper form by post or in electronic form by email. The choice can only be made at application for the main licence or its renewal. Duplicate licences for branch offices and licences with alterations made (e.g. due to a change of place of business) shall be issued in the same manner as the main licence at application or the most recent renewal (whichever is later).

- (11) An applicant who chooses to receive the licence by email must first register an account with electronic Employment Agencies Services (“e-EAS”) and verify the email address through e-EAS. An applicant who fails to do so by the time the application is approved by the Commissioner shall receive the licence in paper form by post.
- (12) While an applicant may indicate the preferred manner of receiving the licence, the Commissioner reserves the right to make the final decision.
- (13) Upon receiving an electronic licence by email via e-EAS, the applicant shall retain the email throughout the validity period of the licence.
- (14) In accordance with sections 52(2A) and 52(2B) of the EO, a licensee shall cause the licence to be displayed at all times in a conspicuous position at the place of business. A licensee who chooses to receive an electronic licence must print out the electronic licence on a new white A4 paper for proper display in accordance with the law.
- (15) Irrespective of whether a licensee has received the licence by post or email, the licensee must return the licence to the Commissioner in the following circumstances:
 - when applying for a change of the employment agency’s place of business;
 - when applying for an alteration of particulars on the licence;
 - when applying for/ cancelling a duplicate licence for a branch office of the employment agency;
 - when the employment agency has ceased to operate as a business; and
 - when the Commissioner has refused to renew or revoked the licence.

Notes requiring attention

- (a) An applicant should NOT commence employment agency activities before the employment agency licence is issued. Any person in contravention is liable on conviction to a maximum fine of $350,000 and imprisonment for 3 years.
- (b) In accordance with section 53(1)(c)(iii) of the EO, the Commissioner may revoke, refuse to issue or renew a licence if the applicant has knowingly furnished to the Commissioner any false or misleading information in connection with the application for the issue/ renewal of the licence. Section 60(5) of the same Ordinance stipulates that any person who in connection with any application to the Commissioner furnishes any information which he knows or reasonably ought to know to be false or misleading shall be liable on conviction to a maximum fine of $50,000.
- (c) Warning Against Bribery: It is an offence under the Prevention of Bribery Ordinance for any person to solicit, offer or accept any advantages including money and gifts in connection with the processing of any EA licence application.
