Service Targets

The Telephone Employment Service is open to all job seekers who have registered through job centres of the Labour Department or the website of the Interactive Employment Service, and are looking for vacancies of private sector.

How to use the service

Registered job seekers can call the Telephone Employment Service Hotline and provide the order number(s) of their selected vacancies. Our placement officers will contact the employer(s) for referral arrangements.

Channels to select job vacancies include

- ▲ Job vacancy cards displayed at job centres of the Labour Department;
- ▲ "Job Explorer" Vacancy Search Terminals installed at the job centres;
- ▲ Website of the Interactive Employment Service www.jobs.gov.hk; and
- ▲ Mobile application of the Interactive Employment Service.

Service Hours

Mondays - Fridays	9:00a.m. - 1:00p.m.
	2:00p.m. - 6:15p.m.

Job seekers not yet registered can approach any job centres for registration OR visit the website of the Interactive Employment Service, www.jobs.gov.hk to register online.

Through our Telephone Employment Service Hotline 2969 0888, you can listen to voice recordings about the employment services provided by the Labour Department or connect to our placement officers during office hours for job referral(s).
