Adopt Employee-oriented Good People Management

Boss: Five Keys to Good People Management
Identify the needs of employees and their families with CARE.
Provide employees with a pleasant work environment.
By means of EMPATHY, employers should put themselves in the shoes of employees, and strengthen top-down communication and cooperation with them to build up excellent teams.
Listen to employees' views with PATIENCE and transform them proactively into effective measures.
Noting the SINCERITY of the employers, employees will work with WILLINGNESS and enhance the productivity of the enterprises!
