

Employment of the Elderly

- Boss Hung: Everybody.....
This meeting focuses on our upcoming manpower arrangements! We all know that Tony has reached retirement age, but he is still very energetic. He has been working in the company for more than 20 years, witnessing our company's ups and downs.
- Tony: Thank you, boss! Thanks for your appreciation and assistance from colleagues!
- Boss Hung: Tony, you are so modest! I know that Tony wants to spend more time with his family after retirement. Tony is our treasurable talent. He has rich experience in our Sales Department and maintains good relationship with customers. He also keeps on guiding junior colleagues. After taken into account the retirement life pattern of Tony, our company has decided to hire him as a part-time Sales Consultant to provide advice on marketing strategy and assist frontline colleagues in customer liaison. This will be a win-win situation for the company and colleagues.
- Tony: Thanks company for giving me the opportunity to continue to work here with suitable work arrangement for the elderly like me. I know that our company has set up an online work platform allowing me to work from home when needed. It is a new technology that requires me to consult young colleagues too. Continuous learning is a good way for the elderly to stay young at heart.
(Applause)
- Boss Hung: Apart from Tony, our company has hired Lian Tse to work in the pantry. She is skillful in making signature coffee and French desserts that everyone will have the chance to enjoy.
- All: Good boss!

(Applause)

All: Friendly workplace for mature persons gives full play to their abilities.

Narrator: For enquiries, please contact Labour Department at 2717 1771.

Labour Department

Enquiry Hotline: 2717 1771

Website: www.labour.gov.hk